FRIDAY MORNING MAY 13, 1864

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue
With the stars for Union in the Field and true
As the sod and defenders of the Brave
Whose blood bought it the Storm cannot make wave

The Pressing Duty

We beg the voters of Oregon, as they prepare themselves for political action on the first Monday in June, to bear in mind that they must either strengthen the Government and weaken the rebellion, or strengthen the rebellion and weaken the Government The result will encourage every patriotic heart, or it will whisper hope to the traitors and pirates, who are still seeking the destruction of the Nation's life

There is nothing doubtful in the issues presented If the Government receives a hearty support, sympathizers with treason will abandon all expectation of acquiring a foot hold in the free North; but if Oregon sustains those, who condemn the rebellion with their lips, while their hearts are bitter in opposition to every measure adopted by those in authority for its suppression—if no, stealing phrases from old and defunct resolutions, are justifying secession in the name of State rights—then, so far as the vote of this State goes, it will give aid and comfort to the enemy and indefinitely prolong the war

Col. Kelly and his political friends spend their time,—not in denouncing the traitors who have plunged the Nation into an ocean of blood, but in abusing the Administration, which is seeking, with the best means at its command, to rescue it. He and they are invoking party prejudices—calling upon Democrats to unite in opposition to the officers of the Government, when, if they have any sense whatever, they cannot but know that such an opposition would destroy our free institutions, and betray the country, bound hand and foot, into the hands of the traitors Shame on such a base prostitution of party! It is unworthy of freemen it is the game of the demagogue and ought to be utterly repudiated and despised by every honest man, no matter what his politics may have been. At a time like this, there should be but one thought, one aim, one purpose and one party, and these all should be directed to the salvation of our National life, and the restoration of public peace, by a victory over infamous treason

Buchanan and Oregon Democracy.—A good deal of wonder has been expressed at the double faced position which the Democracy assumed in its platform, but we observe that a recent visitor of the 'old public functionary" found him in the same fix, so we suppose the party here felt that it was safe to follow him, and they seem to have done so From the report of the conversation, it appears that the Wheatland oracle believed that the loyal people of America could never put down the rebellion, and that peace must flow from other means, which he could not see because of a cloud, that he admired Greeley for his conservatism, and thought Mr Bennett was right; that the rebels were acting in a constitutional and unconstitutional manner, and that the action of the Government was also constitutional and unconstitutional, that the war is useless, and should be sustained, that he was very sorry for the war, and had nothing to regret in regard to his national career; and, in conclusion, that he wanted to see the Union restored upon the principles of James Buchanan's Administration, and that, although he insisted on American independence, he desired speedy peace, which could only be by European intervention. All of which is in the usual manner of oracles, and very consoling to the country"

Politics at the Dalles.—A correspondent writes "Henderson and Kelly spoke here to-night (Wednesday) Mr H made an excellent impression. He is a 'brick' I felt cross about the nomination of a man, who was called an 'old psalm singer,' but no sooner did I see him walk along the street, than I was ready most cheerfully to acknowledge that the convention was wiser in its choice, than I had given it credit for. Even in Col. Kelly's own town and among his personal friends, Mr Henderson will not lose a single vote which any Union man could get"

What has Become of All the Democrats?—As evidence of progress in the political world, the fact may be cited that only eighteen members of Congress could be found sufficiently tinctured with the exploded theories of antiquity to vote in favor of striking out the words "slavery and involuntary servitude is forever prohibited," from the bill enabling the Territory of Colorado to form a State

The Copperhead Nags.—Referring to the Copperhead candidates for the Presidency, the Virginia City Old Piute gets off the following:

As far as the Chicago nags who are to be entered by the Democracy—Seymour, McClellan and Vallandigham—are concerned, the people have very little or no confidence in them, the former, because he was balky at the time of the New York city riots when he threw his rider. "War Democracy" off. He second got astride the race course fence while being groomed, and the latter ran away, throwing his rider—for a very experienced and great reputation—flat on his back in the State of Ohio.

Mr Pearne at Salt Lake.—The Salt Lake correspondent of the Union, gives the following account of an interview with Mr Pearne, and also of the preaching by a Prussian clergyman in the Mormon Tabernacle

The announcement of a Christian minister preaching to the Mormons in their Tabernacle will cause many that may hear of it more like fiction than fact but we had the honor of encountering the instructors of the occasion at the hour of what we ultimately have transpired at the wee Very early on Sunday morning somewhere at or about 7 o'clock when very sleepily ensconced on a spring mattress, carrying out a late Saturday arrangement of a delicious keeping of the seventh day morning, a tap at the door and a peep like Wandered by two gentlemen? Who are they — who are their names? One a white-haired elderly gentleman

All right be there in a minute In a minute and a minute more we were shaking hands with our worthy host the Rev Richmond L Lowe, of the Presbyterian of California, and F H Pearne of the Methodist persuasion of Portland Oregon We were called to see the gentlemen and in a very few minutes we understood that Pearne was hurrying on to a Conference to be held in Boston at Philadelphia and that Dr Lowe was on his way to another gathering of Christians to be assembled at Newark N J But alighting in the City of the Saints they want to see the Prophet Parenthetically your correspondent is supposed to know every person and every thing and to know just how to reach everybody We regretted however that we were unable to inform our Methodist brother how many wives had Brigham Young We did however as far as we could, and said that the main question we had ourselves often asked before we came here, but we had got so used to the place that we never thought of asking and knew no more of the number of a man's wives than we did of the number of his dollar I think the answer was very satisfactory, but my curb visitors declined, notwithstanding, coffee and crackers with my own hurl dozen Pearne left at 9 o'clock and proceeded eastward

The Doctor wanted to preach in the Tabernacle, and would be pleased to see President Young before the meeting, at ten o'clock I thought it was a capital idea, and would test the liberality of Brother Brigham With the gentleman's authority that he would hold forth if he had the privilege I addressed a polite note stated to him the business and requested an answer in an hour With usual promptitude, the "President" was forthcoming, and after perusal of papers, we heard "Certainly take the gentleman down to the Tabernacle introduce him to Brother Wallace, or Brother Spencer, if there and say that I invite him to preach" With "Good morning has" went to head and off we started in pursuit of the Doctor not with very clear we were roped in for a sequence at the Tabernacle, against our Saturday night calculation

I know nothing of the Rev Benjamin I Lowe, beyond the information gleaned from the introductory papers that were passed in our hands but as the gentleman's silvery locks and appearance commanded our respect I was pleased to see him cordially received by the apostles and elders at the pulpit of the Tabernacle He was introduced by Apostle George A Smith, to 3 000 wondering Saints —who had assembled as usual to listen to their own Missionary—and preached, as the Arm a very interesting Christian discourse on the certainty of a future judgment In the afternoon he was again on the platform with the elders and apostles, and at dismissal I saw him and Prof Scott Young walking up street together I On Monday, the Doctor visited the Chief at his office, visited afterward some of the apostles at the Historian's office and seemed quite at home among the brethren during his stay He left on Wednesday morning after praying a note in our hands expressive of his thanks to the courtesies extended to him, and finishing up with his blessing etc

I had long hoped to listen to the eloquence of the lamented Starr King in that Tabernacle An intimate friend inspired that hope some time ago but alas! his sun has set and his eloquence is hushed forever here below I have noticed the visit of Dr Lowe for I think it a feature in life here that should not pass unnoticed, as it is the first of the kind in my experience here, but not, I am told, the first case of the kind since the location of the "Saints" in the mountains I should like to see more of it.

Present Prospect of the Presidential Election.—The correspondent of the New York Post writes as follows:

In July, 1860, for the sake of amusing some friends, I printed an estimate of the Presidential election of that year In that estimate I gave Lincoln 179, and Breckinridge & Co., 124 Electoral votes, the actual result was 180 for the former ticket, 123 for the latter As another election is approaching, I venture on another guess although earlier in the season and the contingencies perhaps greater The Electoral votes are according to the new apportionment, and include the new States of Colorado, Nebraska and Nevada If East Tennessee is admitted as a separate State two additional Electoral votes to represent the two United States Senators should be added to the Union column

Conventions at Astoria.—The District Convention, representing the counties of Tillamook Clatsop and Columbia met at Astoria May 7th, 1864 On motion, Chas Stephens was chosen President, and George Davidson, Secretary On motion, a committee consisting of C Oliver D Ingalls and Judge Stephens, of Columbia were appointed a Committee on Credentials who reported twenty two votes present.

Messrs Quick, of Tillamook, Gillett and Parker of Clatsop and D Blanchard of Columbia were put in nomination, and upon the first ballot P W Gillett, of Clatsop, received twenty one votes, and was declared the Union candidate for the Legislature when on motion the convention adjourned

The Clatsop delegation then proceeded to nominate the county ticket, which resulted as follows For County Clerk, Chas Stephens Sheriff A Montgomery Treasurer, C Boelling, Assessor, John Bradshaw, Surveyor John Gearhourt Coroner D Ingalls County Commissioners, D Warren and P Gearhourt School Superintendent, W H Gray

The Small Pox Remedy.—The small pox remedy which cured three thousand cases in England, taken in all stages of the disease is so simple that it cannot be too widely disseminated. It is

Cream of Tartar	¼ ounce
Rhubarb	15 grains.
Cold Water	1 pint

The dose is from a quarter to a half a pint If severe cases a half pint dose should be administered In cases characterized by delirium great benefit has been obtained by applying a bottle of hot water to the feet Plenty of fresh air is important and an out door airing, at the earliest period practicable is recommended When applied in the earliest stage of the eruption the eruption is arrested and suppuration prevented without any injurious result The mixture should be well stirred or shaken immediately before administering it

Hitting the Nail on the Head.—At a Democratic caucus in Hartford, Conn a veteran speaker smashed the prepared slate by a few energetic remarks, of which the following is a sample

This war which he now goes on in the last I was brought on by filibustering demagogues and fraud, and nothing else If it hadn't been for Southern Democrats living from the Charleston Convention we should not have had any war Swindling brought on the war and the same spirit is being manifested here to night. I have been a Democrat for eighteen years and I want to know who I vote for without any packing about it I move that the report be tabled, and that we proceed to ballot

THREE THOUSAND PRISONERS CAPTURED!

Gen Warren Killed

GOLD 175

New York May 11—The Times has the following in regard to the battle attempt of Saturday

Gen Warren's corps passed through to the Tavern ob that night (Sthy) cowards in the rear as next morning, was within two miles of Spotsylvania Court House Hancock were ordered into action to relieve the men Hancock were now just in time for another movement on Sedgwick early very weak stand time only received by Long, reserve corps Hancock's Hancock, our men rushed into action no doubt Richmond's division Laning, the brave Gen retired before them and we pushed them for three miles In the meantime of the morning full our loss was great We regret to say that our men were outflanked on the left and were fall back and retreat to form the line The enemy gained no advantage, for on the was I night into next and recovering ground ble to occupy the position which our men denced The 5th corps had not been severely the there was not a single division of the term About noon the batteries were posted on the edge of the open ground in the rebels position beside The discharge were deafening Advancing pr ached the corps from the south 6th corps in several heavy lines were thrown in front of the position to aid the fight Hancock been back after them, agreement in the early part the day Wright advanced to the left and was night began to fall and the enemy were giving way We had taken the ground of the enemy them from the position which they had so strongly contested, but darkness was so great that we could easily press them further, and positively ordered it still remained in them hands Nothing was spent quietly in camp, both for us and the enemy in the day with rations

San Francisco, May 12—Great stringency in the money market to day, five per cent being the ruling rate Legal Tenders at 60

Washington May 11—During the last 24 hours about 7,000 men from the Army of the Potomac, wounded in the battles of Thursday and Friday, have arrived A comparatively few of them are suffering severely, and many of them will soon be returned to the army

Washington, May 11—Accounts from the Army of the Potomac concur in the report that heavy fighting on the 10th About 5 P M Hancock made an assault upon the rebel batteries After the assault had continued for some time it was found that the rebel batteries could not be carried without great sacrifice of life and the effort for the time was abandoned

It is reported here this morning that Gen Warren was wounded yesterday and died on the way to Fredericksburg The rumor is generally believed.

The fighting yesterday afternoon was heavy The artillery was brought into action on both sides The result, so far as known this morning, was to our advantage The rebels attempted to get into the rear of our army to obtain supplies, but were driven off with great loss Fighting ended to-day

New York, May 12—The Herald's special of yesterday says that Gibbon's and Barlow's divisions were withdrawn from the south bank of the Rapidan. The latter division was closely followed by the enemy who were checked by our artillery posted along the ridge commanding the river. Early in the day the army began to straighten out in line of battle for a renewal of the engagement Skirmishing took place between the advance guard of the two armies, the enemy desiring himself as though he intended offensive operations Our line formed with the 2d corps on the right, the 5th in the centre and the 6th on the left, with Burnside's corps on the rear of the left for the protection of the immense train, and to act as a reserve in the case of an emergency The country here is quite rolling, studded with groves of pine and hardwood, and affording much better facilities for handling troops and using artillery than about the wilderness The enemy, during the night, strengthened their formidable position with rifle pits, bronstworks and barricades, rendering it stronger than any line of defence occupied by him since leaving his earthworks on the Rapidan

Thus matters stood until far into the after noon, the fire being quite sharp at intervals at different points but without any thing definite Five o'clock was fixed for a grand assault General orders announcing the success of Sherman in the west, and Butler on James river was made to the troops which produced the wildest excitement as the hour approached for the attack, the enthusiasm of the troops became almost ungovernable Grant accompanied by his staff, Meade, Hancock and Warren, all started for the eminence, within sight of each other, while vast columns of our army slowly gathered together for the great struggle Just as the attack was about to be made the enemy advanced on our right, threatening to press back that portion of the line, disconcerting for the time the plan of assault Troops were hurried to the right and succeeded in checking the rebels. Half past six was then fixed upon for the assault Watches were compared by the corps commanders They finally separated with orders that at an appointed hour, simultaneously, with the fire of 12 guns, the whole line should advance with cheers The movement was indescribably grand A portion of the army moved in a solid column, while others advanced in the usual order of battle, the whole army moving together, and yet each command fighting its own battles, when the rebel line opened a most galling and murderous fire against which our lines marched on, and driving the enemy steadily back from the position capturing nearly 3 000 prisoners and 10 pieces of artillery, the latter were all recaptured by the rebels Night closed with our forces occupying the field Our loss is heavy, but judging from the number of killed and wounded left on our hands it is much less than that of the enemy, who fought to the last with desperation, our troops frequently meeting their men in the rifle pits and forcing them by a hand to hand conflict to retreat

New York May 12—11 A M—Gold 175

Loyalty.—McClurg the member of Congress from Missouri who attacked Gen Frank Blair so mercilessly lately, has given written permits to four of his slaves to go into the army, securing to each of them whatever compensation he himself may be entitled to as a loyal owner and stipulating that in case of the death of the men their wives and children shall receive the money. It has also written a letter to his constituents in which well, in which he thus pays "Make your own choice If you go into the army let me hear frequently from you Mark peace with your God and you need not fear death Be temperate, save your earnings If you do fight fight with desperation and never surrender Lorel, you must as Caswell McClung and try to give him to it In the army give your idle hours to learning to read and write"

"You're my idle" as the quizzical husband said to his lazy wife

Pacific University at Forest Grove

This institution [illegible] many advantages to students, and one that are peculiarly favorable to the moral and intellectual training of the young Its rural location is an advantage worthy of much consideration, as it removes the student from the numberless temptations [illegible] populous towns The excitement, business and enterprise are also kept [illegible] grounds of students from the more dissipating influences of these allurements This institution happily exempt The whole business of Forest Grove like that of New England villages seems to be the education of the young, and the efforts and students who are attending the institution are faithful and earnest, which does much towards keeping their morals unperverted and stimulating the intellectual nature

The comment and exercises of the students did them much credit, and showed that with proper training we may, here in Oregon bring up a race to bear the responsibilities of an enlightened society and preserve the liberties and honor of the State And it is well for us to be admonished that unless we do as others have and support such institutions of learning—and see to it that our children are thoroughly educated in them, we must have in mortification of seeing these children occupying secondary positions in society having entered not to fine gnest the work which was then but begun

R P BOISE

Wonderful Change.—Among all the curious happenings of the day, none are more curious than the revolution being wrought in public sentiment Even Democrats now speak of Slavery as a thing of the past, and refuse to do it reverence Men in Congress in our State Legislature and in Tammany Hall, who a few months since worshipped it as "the corner stone of their idolatry" now not only ignore it as an institution to be held sacred from the rough usages of war, but complacently contemplate its utter extermination as an inevitable destiny rather to be desired than deprecated The worst of evils have their compensations, and the evil of the war and which mad men dragged us presents to us this their compensation—That, on I when it may SLAVERY WILL BE ENDED WITH IT, and all the people will say Amen! —Albany Evening Journal

Trying to Escape.—The wife of Charles Burkhart, who is at present at large, on bail, has been making frequent visits to her husband lately, who is still in jail and an examination of his cell yesterday disclosed the fact that he was making calculations to leave those quarters, and had already received an invoice of tools to continue operations with These persons will be recognized as the parties arrested for cruelty to Flora Steele, and held for trial in the Circuit Court The case has assumed a new phase, it appears they have several small children of their own and the detention of the father renders them little support The matter needs attention, and in case the children are in want they should be provided for by the community, until such time as the trouble is disposed of

Disposed of.—By reference to the proceedings of the Common Council it will be seen that the question of a Steam Fire Engine for Portland has been disposed of by a repeal of the section of the ordinance providing for it While we admit that it would be a nice thing for us to have a machine of that class for our Fire Department we confess our inability to see the utility of one at present, or until our streets are in better condition, and hence we agree with the Council, in its action so far on that subject

Recovered.—We are informed that the three little boys of Marcus McMillan of Clackamas who had wandered away from home, and created so much anxiety in the locality, recently, have been found Our informant did not learn the precise particulars but it is gratifying to announce that they have been recovered

REPORT OF THE OREGON INSANE ASYLUM.—We present the following report of the visiting and inspecting physicians, showing the condition of the Oregon Insane Asylum, at the first of the present month:

PORTLAND, OREGON,
May 1st, 1864.

Messrs. A. C. Gibbs:

SIR—We have the honor to report that we have made an usual visit to the Oregon Insane Asylum. We discovered that one patient has been discharged, one escaped, and three admitted, since our last visit, leaving a total remaining in the Asylum, of 45 patients.

By reference to our report of May 1st, 1863, you will observe a gradual accession to the number (28, then remaining, should the same ratio of increase continue, it is probable that at no distant day the interest of the State will demand an Institution projected on a different and more comprehensive basis. We have the honor to be Visiting and Inspecting Physicians.

TRYING TO ESCAPE.—The wife of Charles Burkhart, who is at at present at large on bail, has been making frequent visits to her husband lately, who is still in jail, and an examination of his cell yesterday disclosed the fact that he was making calculations to leave those quarters, and had already received an invoice of tools, to commence operations with. Those persons will be recognized as the parties arrested for cruelty to Flora Steele, and held for trial in the Circuit Court. The case has assumed a new phase, it appears they have several small children of their own, and the detention of the father renders them little support. The matter needs attention, and in case the children are in want they should be provided for by the community, until such time as the trouble is disposed of.

DISPOSED OF.—By reference to the proceedings of the Common Council it will be seen that the question of a Steam Fire Engine for Portland has been disposed of, by a repeal of that section of the ordinance providing for it. While we admit that it would be a nice thing for us to have a machine of that class for our Fire Department, we confess our inability to see the utility of one at present, or until our streets are in better condition, and hence we agree with the Council, in its action so far on that subject.

RECOVERED.—We are informed that the three little boys of Marcus McMillan, of Clackamas, W. T., who had wandered away from home, and created so much anxiety in that locality, recently, have been found. Our informant did not learn the precise particulars, but it is gratifying to announce that they have been recovered.

AN ORGANIST.—Our citizens were regaled yesterday afternoon by "musick" on the street corners, emenating from a comically shaped box, and ground out by a crank in the hands of a cosmopolite. A shower o dimes responded to each set of tunes, and "his soul went marching on."

CAPT. TURNBULL'S NEW STEAMER.—The contract for building the new steamer for the Vancouver trade has been let to Capt. Clinton, of East Portland. The new boat will be 150 feet long, 20 feet beam. The engines are 12-inches in circumference of cylinders, 4 feet stroke. The whole is to be completed, and in running order by the fourth day of October.

THE steamer New World carried 175 tons of freight to the Cascades yesterday. Very few passengers were traveling either way, and the amount of gold dust received by the Express Company was light.

DEPARTURE OF THE SIERRA NEVADA.—The steamship Sierra Nevada, Francis Connor Commander, left this port at 6 o'clock last evening, for Victoria and San Francisco, carrying freight as follows: To San Francisco, [illegible] sacks of flour; 14 bales [illegible]; To Victoria, 87 grain bags, 17 [illegible] sacks of barley, 12 [illegible] of bacon. Treasure amounted to $150,402 [illegible] of land. [illegible] 58, shipped as follows:

Wells Fargo & Co.	$89,000 00
Allen & Lowe	25,000 00
Kohl & Frank	20,000 00
O. P. N. Co.	10,402 00
A. Conner & Co.	1,000 00
Weber & Co.	4,000 00
H. W. Corbett	2,000 00
Jacob Wendt	1,500 00
Wm. Wright	1,000 00
C. C. Kendall	1,000 00
Total	$150,402 00

THE GREAT CONFLICT.—The second part of this admirable and instructive work, by Horace Greeley, has been placed on our table, by Mr. W. H. Shaw, the publisher's agent. We can heartily recommend such a book to the attention of our readers. If a copy could be placed in the hands of every family in Oregon, more solid and honest political information would be diffused than in almost any other way. It tells what everybody ought to know.

THANKS.—We have received from Mr. Barnett, who is always fully supplied with everything readable, a fine collection of pictorials, magazines, etc. He has the new monthlies, and everybody can find something of interest on his counter.

REJOICING OVER IT.—The Common Council passed an Ordinance last evening providing for the construction of an Engine House for Company No. 3, whereupon the "boys" of that Company rolled up a big bon fire, rang their bell, and had a general rejoicing.

IN ORDER.—Harbaugh & Stitzel's mill was not closed for want of logs, as we are informed, but for the purpose of undergoing repairs. It is in order to-day, and will be kept busy.

NOT TOO HIGH.—If you buy the best you buy the cheapest. Shelby has the best, most general and well selected stock of boots and shoes to be seen in this market. We do not propose to advise, but an examination of his stock before buying elsewhere is our reasonable conclusion.

Rebekah Meeting.—There will be a meeting held in Pre Degree of Rebekah, on Thursday evening, May 19, at the Hall of Samaria in Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F. Members of the order in good standing are invited to attend.

By order of N. G.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere. ap2d1m

The Last Words of Stephen A. Douglas to his Countrymen.

HIS LAST LETTER

CHICAGO May 10 1863

My Dear Sir — Being deprived of the use of my arms at present by a severe attack of rheumatism, I am compelled to avail myself of the services of an amanuensis to answer your two letters

It seems that some of my friends are unable to comprehend the difference between arguments used in favor of an equitable compromise with the hope of averting the horrors of war, and the support of the Government and flag of our country when war is being waged against the United States with the avowed purpose of producing a permanent disruption of the Union and a total destruction of its Government.

All hope of compromise with the cotton States was abandoned when they assumed the position that the separation of the Union was complete and final, and that they never would consent to a reconstruction in any contingency—not even if we would furnish them with a blank sheet of paper and permit them to inscribe their own terms

Still the hope was cherished that reasonable and satisfactory terms of adjustment could be agreed upon with Tennessee, North Carolina and the border States, and that whatever terms would prove satisfactory to these loyal States would create a Union party in the cotton States which would be powerful enough at the ballot box to destroy the revolutionary government, and bring those States back into the Union by the voice of their own people. This hope was cherished by Union men North and South, and was never abandoned until actual war was levied at Charleston, and the authoritative announcement made by the revolutionary government at Montgomery, that the secession flag would be planted upon the walls of the capitol at Washington, and a proclamation issued inviting the pirates of the world to prey upon the commerce of the United States.

These startling facts, taken in connection with the boasted announcement that the ravages of war and carnage should be quickly transferred from the cotton fields of the South to the wheat fields and corn fields of the North, furnish the conclusive evidence that it was the fixed purpose of the secessionists utterly to destroy the government of our fathers and obliterate the United States from the map of the world

In view of this state of facts there was but one path of duty left to patriotic men. It was not a party question, nor a question involving partisan policy; it was a question of government or no government, country or no country, and hence it became the imperative duty of every Union man, every friend of constitutional liberty, to rally to the support of our common country, its government and flag, as the only means of checking the progress of revolution and of preserving the union of the States.

I am unable to answer your question in respect to the policy of Mr Lincoln and his Cabinet. I am not in their confidence, as you and the whole country ought to be aware I am neither the supporter of the partisan policy nor the apologist for the errors of the Administration My previous relations to them remain unchanged, but I trust the time will never come when I shall not be willing to make any needful sacrifice of personal feeling and partisan policy for the honor and integrity of my country

I know of no mode by which a loyal citizen may so well demonstrate his devotion to his country as by sustaining the flag, the Constitution and the Union under all circumstances and under every Administration, (regardless of party politics) against all assailants at home and abroad The course of Clay and Webster towards the Administration of Gen Jackson in the days of nullification, presents a noble and worthy example for all true patriots. At the very moment that fearful crisis was precipitated upon the country, partisan strife between Whigs and Democrats was quite as bitter and relentless as now between Democrats and Republicans. The gulf which separated the party leaders in those days was quite as broad and deep as that which now separates the Democracy from the Republicans But the moment an enemy rose in our midst, plotting the dismemberment of the Union, and the destruction of the Government, the voice of partisan strife was hushed in patriotic silence. One of the brightest chapters in the history of our country will record the fact that during this eventful period, the great leaders of the opposition, sinking the partisan in the patriot, rushed to the support of the Government and became its ablest and best defenders against all assailants until the conspiracy was crushed and ended, when they returned to their former positions as party leaders upon political issues

These acts of political devotion have never been deemed evidences of infidelity or political treachery on the part of Clay and Webster to the principles and organizations of the old Whig party Nor have I any apprehension that the firm and unanimous support which the Democratic leaders and masses are now giving to the constitution and the Union will ever be deemed evidence of infidelity to Democratic principles, or a want of loyalty to the organization and creed of the Democratic party If we hope to regard and perpetuate the ascendancy of our party, we should never forget that A MAN CANNOT BE A TRUE DEMOCRAT UNLESS HE IS A LOYAL PATRIOT

With the sincere hope that these, my conscientious convictions, may coincide with those of my friends,

I am, very truly, yours,
STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS.

To Virgil Hickox, Esq ,
Chairman Democratic State Committee

ROUGH ON HALLECK —In an address at St Louis, lately, Gen. Rosecrans made the following extraordinary statement, published in the account of a celebration

Previous to the battle of Chickamauga, he [Rosecrans] telegraphed to Gen Halleck to know whether any portion of the rebel army of Virginia had been sent southward, and Gen Halleck replied that no troops of Lee's army had been sent in that direction except a few regiments for Charleston! [Cries of Shame! Shame' from the officers] In consequence of this false information the Army of the Cumberland encountered superior numbers for Longstreet, from Lee's army, was there with over 20,000 men, and the whole force of the enemy was at least 93,000, while the Union forces were not more than 55,000

A Detroit paper says "Michigan is going crazy on the oil question. The whole State seems to rest upon a foundation of oil Another spring has turned up only a few miles from Detroit, and everybody in that city is going about with a kerosene lamp in his or her head!"

A bachelor editor, sensitive in his relation to rights, objects to taking a wife through fear that if he should have a baby, (his wife he means,) his cotemporaries, who habitually copy without credit, would refuse to give him credit for the baby

The San Jose postmaster, in his list of advertised letters, thus distinguishes an uncalled for missive "Chinese letter—no sabe."

COWLITZ AND WAHKIAKUM COUNTY CONVENTION The Cowlitz and Wahkiakum Union County Convention met and was organized by electing A R Burbank President, and Charles McCall Secretary.

The delegates from Cathlamet precinct Wahkiakum county, were T Dray and Chas McCall from Oak Point Cowlitz county, W H Harris (two votes) Monticello, A R Burbank L I Smith O C Huntington H D Huntington N then of Stone (L P Smith's proxy) Cullim precinct James H Pollen

Messrs Harris H D, Huntington and Dray the committee on resolutions, reported the following which were adopted

Resolved 1st. That we give cordial support to the Administration of Mr Lincoln and for his patriotic, honest and faithful conduct, establish hope of his re nomination by the Union National Convention, to be holden at Baltimore on the 7th of June

2d That we are in favor of a more vigorous prosecution of the war, deeming it more speedily in subduing the rebellion and securing a permanent peace

3d That the present trying times of our country should beget patriotism in the great heart of the American people, in support of the war for the life of the government and we can but look upon all opposed to the war as accessories or in sympathy with the rebellion hence, unfriendly to our republican form of government

Mr Wm W Hays having received a majority of the votes cast, was on motion, declared the unanimous choice of the Convention for joint Representative.

The Cowlitz county convention then nominated the following ticket for county officers For Probate Judge, B Huntington Auditor Jasper Stone Sheriff, B Laffey, County Commissioner, V M Wallace Assessor, L D Shepardson

Messrs Burbank, Nathaniel Stone and McCall, were appointed a central committee for the ensuing year

On motion, the Secretary was instructed to furnish a copy of the minutes of the Convention to the OREGONIAN and Washington Standard for publication

A SLANDER NAILED —In the course of their testimony before the Committee on the Conduct of the War, Generals Sickles and Butterfield were asked what knowledge they had of General Hooker's habits and whether there was any truth in the remark that he was under the influence of liquor at Chancellorsville. They both promptly characterised the report as an infamous slander, and so did every officer who was questioned on the subject. General Butterfield went even further, and having acted as Gen Hooker's Chief of Staff from his grand appointment down to the present time, declared that such a thing as Gen Hooker being under the influence of liquor never occurred during the period of his service with him, and could not have so occurred without his knowing it. Those questions were projected at the request of General Hooker's friends, to dispose of a slander which was sprung upon him by the McClellan crowd and which has done him some damage with conscientious minds This popular falsehood, therefore, now falls from against him, as it did previously from McDowell, Butler Grant, Banks, and almost every prominent General in the army The McClellanites kept it upon Hooker longer than upon any other — Wilkes Spirit of the Times

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron without further oxidation has been deemed impossible

In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica A A HAYES, M D

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr J R Chilton of this city, and Prof Booth U. S. Mint, Philadelphia The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly" July 6, 1860, page 78)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer Heart Liver and Kidney Diseases Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis etc

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine The patient recovers flesh strength and colors hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full strong and florid.
